Hi Kristin,

Andrew Naylor will be representing both the DNR and the Mental Health Trust with respect to the Wrangell Project. I have invited him to our meeting on the 22nd.

If we know who they are I think it would be good to include them. I envision this meeting as a preliminary discussion to start working on how we can create an enforceable document that meets everyone's needs for this cleanup.

Thanks!
Kris

If I get the names of the other attorneys for the project (from DNR) would you want them included, or did you just want to meet with DEC at this point?

Hi Jenn-

I mistyped in my message to you – I'll be in town the 22nd and 23rd. Any chance you have a little free time on the 22nd?

Hi Kris,

A meeting would be great! Right now I have an all day meeting on the 23rd, but am open all day on the 24th.

Hi Jennifer-

I am the attorney representing EPA regarding the planned cleanup in Wrangell. I wanted to let you know that I will be in Anchorage on Aug 23 and 24. If you have any free time on either of those days it would be great to meet in person. I don't have anything specific to give you (i.e., draft agreement) on this site, but it would be good to meet and get the ball rolling.

Please let me know if you have any availability on those two days and we'll see what we can work out.

Thanks,
Kris

Dear Wally,

Thank you for your call last Friday. In regard to the legal agreement which must be developed in advance of the signing of the TCRA action memo, Department of Law attorney Jennifer Currie will represent DEC. Jenn has contacted the state Department of Natural Resources legal team and they will be assigning an attorney in the next couple of weeks.

Your EPA team is on the ground in Wrangell currently and is making some initial decisions about the proposed site. Until they have made those decisions, DNR's regional administrator, Rob Edwardson is reluctant to engage too much in talks with the City and Borough of Wrangell about their longer term involvement.

We'll let you know when we know more.

Thanks,

Sally
